

Lehi's First Settlers.

The celebration of the 24th was a reminder of pioneer days and naturally Lehi's early history was one of the topics. There seems to be a question as to who first settled in Lehi. The Banner expects in the near future to print some of the early history of Lehi and will be pleased to learn of any items of interest.

Brigham Young sent M. H. Royle down this way to visit and find out the condition. He made his report and his family and David Clark and family came down here about the 18th to 20th of September, 1850, and located near Snow's Springs. That same year, in October, Daniel Cox, Wm. Farthingham and Daniel Collett with their families, moved to Lehi and located near Samuel Briggs' place on the creek.

Arzeba Cox was the first child born here, Nov. 18, 1850, daughter of Daniel and Lucy Cox.
